Wisdom Sharing 2017: November 2-4

Coherent Governance®: State of the Art Governance for Board members and your key senior administrators.

Join us for professional learning – and sharing – to achieve good governance.
At an affordable price – in a great location!

November 2-4 from 8am-5pm daily at Sonnenalp Hotel in Vail, CO
AGI partners Linda J. Dawson and Dr. Randy Quinn; and our new affiliate, Vicki Hawarden

You'll learn how to:

- Achieve role clarity and meaningful purpose for board work
- Develop Results-driven agendas focused at least 50 percent achievement of Results for clients/students – rather than on operations
- End micro-managing, but establish and monitor all operational expectations
- Execute authentic evaluations of the board and CEO/Superintendent for focused and continuous improvement
- Direct operations only through the CEO/Superintendent with clear board delegation of authority but with meaningful staff accountability

1. November 2 – Reinventing Your Board...the right way!

Targeted basic understanding of this revolutionary system of governance.

This session is for those who are not practicing Coherent Governance, but want to learn more about how it can benefit the board and organization.

2. November 3 & 4 – Wisdom Sharing 2017: Establish Systemic and Systematic Good Governance

Research, case studies, presentations, problem solving, best practices in Coherent Governance implementation with fellow organizations who have made the commitment to better governance.

This session is for members of boards and their staffs who are now practicing Coherent Governance® or Policy Governance® and want to learn how to elevate their game.
